

IMMIGRATION LEGAL ASSISTANCE – FREE CONSULTATIONS IN REDMOND, OREGON Monthly in 2018

Who We Are: Immigration Counseling Service (ICS) is a non-profit legal organization that has offered legal services to immigrant communities in Oregon and Southwest Washington for almost 40 years. With offices in Portland and Hood River, ICS has recognized the need to expand our services into underserved areas, and has opened a monthly mobile legal clinic in Central Oregon, serving immigrants in central and eastern parts of the state. You can read more about ICS and how to access our services here: <http://ics-law.org/how-to-access-services.php>

What We Do: We are lawyers and legal workers who work only on immigration matters. All are bilingual in English and Spanish, and have extensive experience in immigration cases. We are offering confidential, free consultations to people east of the Cascades who have questions regarding immigration matters.

When: Beginning in 2018, we will be in REDMOND at Becky Johnson Community Center the last Monday of each month, from 9 AM until Noon, and again from 1PM to 3:45 PM:

In the event of inclement weather, we will do our best to arrange Skype or telephone consultations.

Where: We will be at THE BECKY JOHNSON COMMUNITY CENTER, 12 SW 8th St, Redmond, OR, at the corner of 8th and Deschutes Avenue in front of the Public Library.

If You Want Help: We are not pre-scheduling appointments – All appointments are first come, first served. We will see people in the order in which they arrive; those who arrive first will receive the first appointment. Each appointment is 30 minutes. All client conversations are held in strictest confidence.

Cost: There is no cost for the consultations. If after a consultation the lawyer and client decide to continue with representation, the lawyer will discuss fees and costs with the client. We are a non-profit organization, and our fee structure is below market rates, structured for low income clients with few resources.
